Dear Mom & Dad,

It is another hot day today- and will probably get up to about  $90^{\circ}$  again. It will sure be nice to get back there!

Keith is arriving today and will be staying with Sue for about a week. They are coming over for dinner tonight, so I am trying to plan something easy to eat in this hot weather. I might try to have it on the porch.

I just talked to Millie who is calling banks trying to get the best interest rate on a loan for the house.

Bye, for now.

Love,
Mary
